

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 06.08.2024

Introduction

Welcome to "Idle Ball Falling Simulator" (the "App"). This Privacy Policy explains how we (The company "UnlockedSoftware") collects, uses, and protects information collected through the App. By using the App, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy.

Information We Collect

Since the App is completely offline-based, we do not collect any personal information such as usernames, email addresses, or any other details. We also do not collect any device information, log data, or usage statistics.

How We Use Your Information

As we do not collect any personal information, device information, log data, or usage statistics, we do not use or process any such data.

Sharing Your Information

We do not share any personal information with third parties, as we do not collect any personal information.

Your Rights and Choices

Since we do not collect any personal information, there are no actions required from users regarding access, update, deletion, or opt-out procedures for personal information. You can still write us via E-Mail to ensure, that we do not collect any such data.

Data Security

Although we do not collect any data, we implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure the App's integrity and security.

Advertising

We display advertisements in our app to support our services. These ads are provided by third-party ad networks. To deliver personalized ads and improve the user experience, we collect and use certain information, including:

- Google Play Ads ID: We collect the Google Play Ads ID from your device to show relevant ads.

The use of your data by our advertising partners is subject to their privacy policies.

Permissions

Our app requires certain permissions to provide a seamless gaming experience. Specifically, we request permission to:

- Read and write to the file system: This permission allows the app to create and manage local save files on your device, ensuring your game progress is stored and retrievable.

Rest assured, these permissions are used solely for the purposes mentioned and not for any unauthorized access or data collection.

Children's Privacy

The App is accessible to users of all ages in compliance with Google Play's terms of service. We are committed to protecting the privacy of all our users, including children. Parents and guardians are encouraged to monitor their children's use of the App and instruct them to never provide personal information through the App.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy within the App. You are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes. Changes to this Privacy Policy will also be notified via the official Discord server, which can be joined via the Apps settings.
